

Christina Weise is the new Executive Director of the Saskatchewan Centre for Patient Oriented Research. Prior to joining SCPOR, Christina was the Associate Director for the Translating Research in Elder Care program at the University of Alberta and served for over 10 years as the CEO of Research Manitoba. She has a Master of Public Administration from the University of Manitoba and has more than 20 years of experience developing and implementing public policy in the areas of research and innovation and in managing funds and programs to support research.

Christina serves on numerous Boards including as Chair of the Institute Advisory Board with the Institute of Health Services and Policy Research, and as a member of the Health Data Research Network Board of Directors, the Leading 4 Impact Board of Directors and of the Advisory Council for the Canadian Longitudinal Study on Aging.

Outside of work Christina loves gardening, reading, knitting and spending time with friends and family. Christina is married to Jean-Paul and is mum to Cora, Ani and Xavier.