

“The commonality with [youth] is that they don’t have any sense of the future. They [have] no connectivity to anything... no understanding of any kind of future to look forward to”

[Counsellor, June 2021]

“People turn to addictions to heal, to cope because there's nothing out here for them”

[Community member, June 2021]

“It is not somebody from outside that will bring that solution. It has to be developed by the local people, so they feel ownership of what's happening”

[Clinician, June 2021]

Lindsey Boechler, EdD (Student), MA, ACP

Saskatchewan Polytechnic

306-531-6514

Lindsey.Boechler@saskpolytech.ca

